
Ghosts like UFO's are a topic that stirs the imagination and sparks intrigue into the minds of most people. With so many sightings world wide there must be something real to all of this. Much of our intrigue is the fact that most of us desire or perhaps are even fearful to know what happens after death. Ghosts in this sense are representing the possibility or hope of an after life and serves to increase this mystique.

By experience, many have stated seeing the appearance of departed loved ones or those of well known people of the past. It is assumed that ghosts are the spiritual remains in an energy form of the deceased existing on another plane of existence. Very convincing cases have been produced to suggest that some ghosts seem to linger on with unresolved and unfinished business to accomplish. Other cases would indicate that in a traumatic death the person seems "stuck" in a place or area where the event took place. The Bible has much to say about this topic. Most people today are either not aware of what is said because they have never been taught from the Bible at their place of worship or they simply do not believe the relevancy of the Bible at all.

I would like to share with you what the Bible does have to say about ghosts and the afterlife. Job 7:9-10 "As the cloud disappears and vanishes away, so he who goes down to the grave does not come up. He shall never return to his house, nor shall his place (body) know him anymore."

This makes it very clear that the departed do not "roam" the earth or return. They stay dead and separated from this level of existence.

There are more scriptures that concur with this thought. Heb 9:27 "And as it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment": There is a judgement or determination placed upon the dead that determines what happens to them next. This determination has nothing to do with good works, or spiritual knowledge it has to do with your reliance upon God to direct your life. Before Christ came to the earth, departed souls went into a hollow earth. There exists two chambers within, separated by a gulf. This description was given by Jesus as he spoke about death to the people of his time as recorded in Luke 16:22-31 "So it was that the beggar died, and was carried by the angels to Abraham's bosom. The rich man also died and was buried. And being in torments in Hades, he lifted up his eyes and saw Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom. "Then he cried and said, 'Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus that he may dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue; for I am tormented in this flame.' "But Abraham said, 'Son, remember that in your lifetime you received your good things, and likewise Lazarus evil things; but now he is comforted and you are tormented. 'And besides all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed, so that those who want to pass from here to you cannot, nor can those from there pass to us.' "Then he said, 'I beg you therefore, father, that you would send him to my father's house, for I have five brothers, that he may testify to them, lest they also come to this place of torment.' "Abraham said to him, 'They have Moses and the prophets; let them hear them.' "And he said, 'No, father Abraham; but if one goes to them from the dead, they will repent.' "But he said to him, 'If they do not hear Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded though one rise from the dead.'" A bosom in ancient times was a pocket located above the waist formed by a robe belted at the waist. This is called a tunic. We no longer wear such apparel and some meaning has been lost. "Abraham's bosom" then, was this "pocket" in the earth. (See the tract Hell and the Hollow Earth for more detail)

The dialog here says it all. Even if one were to return they would not be believed. It is also recorded that after the death of Christ he went into this area of Abraham's Bosom to set the captives free. There was a removal of those in Paradise. Now those who die in faith go directly to be with the Lord. 2 Cor 5:8 "We are confident, yes, well pleased rather to be absent from the body and to be present with the Lord." This idea is confirmed by the banning of associating with mediums and seeking the dead. (See, Do the dead speak to the living, tract)

So what are ghosts?

In view of such conflicting statements from the Bible with the experiences many are having today, The question remains, What are ghosts?

Ghosts are disembodied spirits. They are an unusual result of a special judgement by God imposed upon a very unusual group of creatures. I say creatures because they are not human or angelic they were a combination of both!

In Genesis 6th chapter we are given the background of the world just before the Great Flood which was a judgement from God. Gen 6:1-4 "Now it came to pass, when men began to multiply on the face of the earth, and daughters were born to them, that the sons of God saw the daughters of men, that they were beautiful; and they took wives for themselves of all whom they chose... There were giants on the earth in those days, and also afterward, when the sons of God came in to the daughters of men and they bore children to them. Those were the mighty men who were of old, men of renown".

Much controversy hinges on the interpretation of the "Sons of God" and the "Giants". (See the Real Flood of Noah tract for more detail) For the sake of space, the Sons of God are fallen angels that took human form and married and interbred with the female population of Earth. Their offspring were called the mighty men of renown. These were half human and angelic beings mortal yet eternal beings. As Judgement was passed upon the earth, these hybrids and their fallen angel parents were sentenced to everlasting chains of darkness as described in 2 Peter 2:4 and Jude 1:6. "And angels who did not keep their own domain, (angelic order) but abandoned their proper abode, (a body) He has kept in eternal bonds under darkness for the judgment of the great day,” Jude 1:6. “For if God spared not the angels that sinned, but cast them down to hell, and delivered them into chains of darkness, to be reserved unto judgment;” 2 Pet 2:4

In this text most of us get the visualization of Angels shackled to a dungeon like pit. In the Greek we get quite a different picture. This special sentence is actually described as a wrap around shroud of darkness or obscurity, or as Strong’s put it - a ghost. The chains have more of a meaning of a cycle of going up and trailed down. This cycle is understood by the event at Gadareneas. As Jesus commanded Legion a group of unclean spirits out of a man, they begged him not to send them back to the pit. They were cast into a herd of pigs and drowned. These were disembodied spirits that possessed a man and then placed into animals. They roamed upon the earth but belonged in hell. These are the angels that sinned before the flood and their offspring. They do make appearances to man. They do speak to the living. They appear in various deceptive forms to delude mankind into a false belief of life after death and a false sense of hope. We have been warned that in the last days it would be like the days before the flood! These same spirits today are preparing the people of the World to receive a “New Age” with a powerful new Leader.

1 Tim 4:1 “Now the Spirit speaks expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils; II Th 2:9-11 Even him, whose coming is after the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders, And with all deceivableness of unrighteousness (a wrong way) in them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved. And for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie.”

These ghosts of the Giants have been around for thousands of years. They have roamed the earth as invisible agents for their leader Satan. They can have knowledge of crimes because they inspired many of them. They can know your most personal experiences as they might of been there or someone else’s from hundreds of years ago. They are conspiring against mankind to give a false hope and idea of life after death. They are getting mankind ready to receive them once again in the living flesh as prophesied in the scriptures along with their leader. These “New Age” forms of contact with spirits are the most dangerous events to happen to mankind on such a scale it truly can be compared only to the time before the flood. If you will not believe the truths in the Bible about a personal God who loves you, I guarantee you will believe THE BIG LIE!

In your quest for spiritual truth I only hope you will reconsider the real claims of the Bible. There is so much more here than what you might of been traditionally taught. We are already experiencing the large Falling away mentioned in II Th 2:3 “Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition;”

In prayer ask God, seek him with your whole heart...you will find him. For more info or help:
